Terms of Use Guidelines

Comments posted to this page will be monitored and inappropriate content will be removed as soon as possible and without prior notice. In accordance with Mariposa County's Website Video and Social Media Policy, the Human Services Department reserves the right to remove inappropriate content, including, but not limited to:

- Obscene language or sexual content
- Content that stigmatizes, threatens, or defames any person or organization
- Content that violates copyright laws or legal ownership
- Content that promotes illegal activity or incites violence
- Content that reveals confidential information, including victim information
- Content that is repetitive or duplicative (spam)
- Content that promotes or endorses commercial products or services

The Human Services Department disclaims any and all responsibility and liability for any materials that the Human Services Department deems inappropriate for posting, which cannot be removed in an expeditious and otherwise timely manner.

Before posting on our page, please review the following:

- In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
- If you are in crisis, and need Mental Health services, please call our 24-hour Mental Health crisis response number at 209-966-7000 or toll-free at 800-549-6741.
- Do not use this page to report a crime.
- Please be mindful of the Terms of Use Guidelines posted above, and ensure your post does not violate those guidelines.
- This page is not continually monitored by employees of the Mariposa County Human Services Department. It is monitored as time allows.
- Posting information related to a crime on this page is not anonymous. You may be contacted by the Mariposa County Sheriff's Office, or appropriate law enforcement agency.
- Any use of the "like" feature between the Mariposa County Human Services Department and a private person does not indicate endorsement of that person's actions or comments.
