

MARIPOSA COUNTY RESOLUTION NO. 85-5

DIRECTING THE ROAD DEPARTMENT TO REPOST SIGNS
ON CHOWCHILLA RIVER BRIDGE, AND
DIRECTING HOMER WILSON TO REMOVE BOULDERS
AND SIGNS FROM COUNTY PROPERTY

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors has received many complaints regarding the location and size of the "No Loitering - No Fishing From Bridge" signs on the Harris Cut-Off Road near the Chowchilla River Bridge, and

WHEREAS, additional complaints have been received by the Board regarding boulders and signs placed on County property by Homer Wilson, a private individual.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of Mariposa that the County Road Department is hereby directed to remove the "No Loitering - No Fishing From Bridge" signs on the Harris Cut-Off Road near the Chowchilla Bridge. The Road Department is further directed to install smaller signs on the inside portion of the Bridge which shall be visible to the public crossing the Bridge with the same wording as the signs removed.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that County Counsel is directed to inform Homer Wilson as follows:

1. That he is to forthwith remove the boulders which he has placed on County property near the Chowchilla Bridge, and

2. That he is to forthwith remove all "No Trespassing" signs which have been installed on County property near the Chowchilla Bridge.
