RECOMMENDED ACTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

Review the Mariposa County Probation Department's Voluntary and Involuntary Monitoring Policies pursuant to California Penal Code Sections 1203.016 and 1203.017.

Secure Alert continues to be the provider for the program.

Penal Code Section 1203.017 authorizes the County Correctional Administer to place inmates on GPS monitoring to address overcrowding in the jail. The policy has been updated to incorporate the new involuntary release program.

BACKGROUND AND HISTORY OF BOARD ACTIONS:

In 2006 the Board of Supervisors authorized the Probation Department to enter into an agreement with Secure Alert for the purpose of using GPS for the Electronic Monitoring program. Previously the program was operated on voluntary bases.

VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY MONITORING POLICIES

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to establish the Mariposa County Probation Department's procedures and guidelines for the application and acceptance of qualified defendants in the Electronic Monitoring Program which includes Global Positioning System (GPS) monitoring or the Involuntary Home Detention Program, due to overcrowding at the Mariposa County Adult Detention Facility.

POLICY

It is the policy of the Mariposa County Probation Department that only those defendants meeting the specified guidelines for the program shall be allowed to participate.

It is the policy of the Mariposa County Probation Department that the Mariposa County Adult Detention Facility may refer inmates from the county jail when overcrowding demands release of inmates for the supervision by electronic monitoring. The Mariposa County Probation Department will accept those referrals only upon the determination that the defendant is amenable to meet the program's criteria.

It is the policy of the Mariposa County Probation Department that inmates/defendants who violate the terms and conditions of the monitoring program shall be remanded to the county jail; and shall not be allowed to participate in the program during the current court proceedings.
