

MARIPOSA COUNTY RESOLUTION NO. 88-461

A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE ON ALCOHOL PROBLEMS, INC.

WHEREAS, the California Conference on Alcohol Problems, Inc. (CCAP), together with the Central Valley Regional Prevention Forum (Fresno, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Merced and Tulare Counties), has scheduled the 13th Annual CCAP Statewide Conference on September 27, 28 and 29, 1988, in Visalia, California; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the Conference is to explore strategies to prevent alcohol and other drug-related problems which have serious adverse social and personal consequences; and

WHEREAS, alcohol abuse causes illnesses, mortality, fetal alcohol birth defects, lost employment, and reduced productivity which affect our society at the individual, family and community levels; and

WHEREAS, alcohol-related problems are a major public health epidemic in California and the nation; and

WHEREAS, in California the socio-economic costs of alcohol-related problems is estimated in excess of $15.7 billion annually; and

WHEREAS, preventing alcohol and other drug-related problems requires a comprehensive approach that includes individuals, organizations and agencies representing both the public and private sectors working together;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors, a political subdivision of the State of California, hereby supports the CCAP 1988 statewide conference and encourages all citizens to participate in its activities.
